Online Education & Safety in Schools

Staff will continue to provide a safe environment, including online. This includes the use of an online filtering system.

Where students are using computers in school, appropriate supervision will be in place. There are:

- clear rules for staff around how to conduct online learning and how to keep themselves safe
- clear processes for the use of mobile devices when using technology for online learning

Schools may wish to use these resources to understand more about ensuring online education is safe:

- ❖ remote education advice from The Key for School Leaders
- ❖ advice from NSPCC on undertaking remote education safely
- ❖ guidance from the UK Safer Internet Centre on remote education

Children and Online Safety away from school

It is important that all staff who interact with children, including online, continue to look out for signs a child may be at risk. Any such concerns are dealt with as per the Safeguarding & Child Protection Policy and where appropriate, referrals should still be made to children's social care and as required, the police.

Staff will ensure any use of online learning tools and systems is in line with privacy and data protection/GDPR requirements.

Personal Data and GDPR

Schools and colleges should continue to follow the guidance outlined in the data protection: toolkit for schools when managing personal data and may need to consider:

- ❖ taking care not to share contact details when emailing multiple people
- ❖ being careful when sharing usernames and other personal data for access to online resources
- ❖ providing access to school data systems safely
