

Exploring the Lives of Significant Explorers in the Past

The Arctic

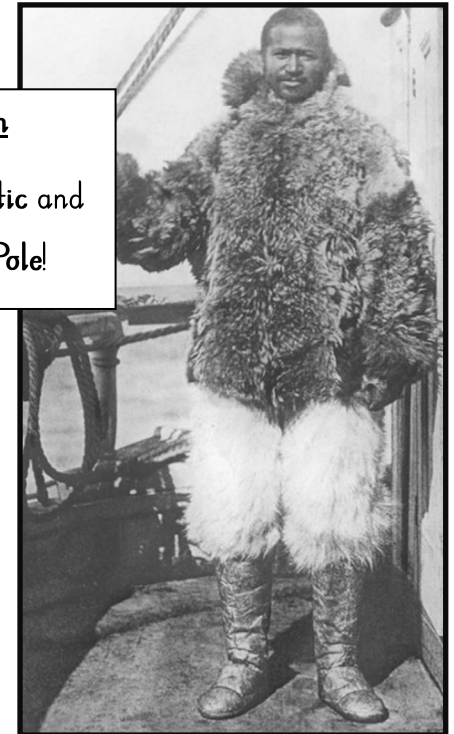

Robert Falcon Scott

He explored Antarctica and made it to the South Pole!

Matthew Henson

He travelled to the Arctic and reached the North Pole!

Timeline of Significant Events: - Not in Living Memory, Over 100 Years Ago!

Matthew Henson

1887: Henson met explorer Robert Peary, who invited him to be his assistant

1891: Henson and Peary set off on 1st Expedition to the North Pole

1892: Henson and Peary return home without reaching North Pole

1908: Henson and Peary set off on 8th Expedition to the North Pole

1909: Henson reaches the North Pole, believed by many to be the very first to reach it!

Robert Falcon Scott

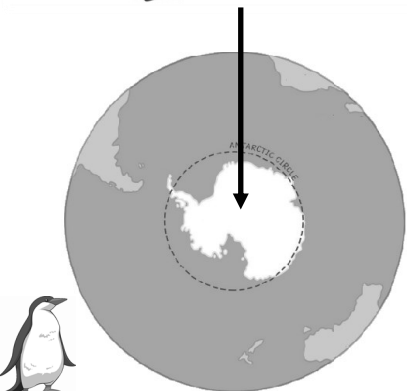

1901: Scott and his crew set off on 1st Expedition to Antarctica

1904: Scott and his crew return to England without reaching Antarctica

1910: Scott and his crew set off on 2nd Expedition to Antarctica

1912: Reach the South Pole, but find the Norwegians have beaten them there

1914: Scott and his crew are found frozen to death in Antarctica

Antarctica