The story of The Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37)

1. A man is beaten and left by the roadside on his journey from Jericho to Jerusalem.
2. Important people from Jerusalem pass him and do not offer any help. They cross over the road and ignore the wounded man.
3. The Samaritan- a man from Samaria, stops to help the man. He bandages his wounds and takes him to an inn and pays for him to be cared for.

The story of the Good Samaritan can be found in the Gospel of Luke in the New Testament of the Bible.

Jesus told the story to his followers to show them that they should always be willing to help other people.

The Samaritan and the man from Jerusalem would have usually considered themselves to be enemies.

The Samaritan was putting his own life at risk by stopping to help the beaten man.

The Samaritan had no reasonable hope or expectation that the man would ever show kindness or help him in the future.

This help is an illustration of unconditional love and humanity.
